

Hence, we recommend that Government either deal with hockey as a special case (as recommended above) or conduct further inquiries to ascertain how, if at all, all sports could be dealt with in a single legislative action.